

Anytime I speak or write about God's blessings, people often ask, "You mean He wants to pour His upon me? How? Why? When?"

And here is the clincher: "I'm just not sure it could happen to me!"

Well, upon the authority of the Bible, I can tell you that we are given very clear instructions and promises about an abundance that is ready to be poured upon you and your loved ones.

More importantly, I truly believe that the greatest season has just begun for believers, and I want to send you the very special word that the Lord has been leading me to share with His people!

God desires for you, His child, to prosper in all that you do. He says in 3 John 2 :

"Beloved, I wish above all things that thou mayest prosper and be in health, even as thy soul prospereth."

This is God's will for your life today! God wants to pour blessings on you and your loved ones as never before! Now, more than ever!

How do we know this?

God Wants You to Be Blessed

The Bible is clear:

“The Lord shall open unto thee his good treasure, the heaven to give the rain unto thy land in his season, and to bless all the work of thine hand: and thou shalt lend unto many nations, and thou shalt not borrow” (Deuteronomy 28:12📖).

The Bible declares in Psalm 24:1📖:

“The earth is the Lord’s, and the fulness thereof; the world, and they that dwell therein.” God owns this world, even the “cattle upon a thousand hills” (Psalm 50:10📖) as well as the silver and gold (1 Kings 20:3📖).

Righteousness legally puts you in line to receive all of God’s blessings, not only in heavenly places, but also here and now on this earth:

“The tabernacle of the upright shall flourish” (Proverbs 14:11📖).

“In the house of the righteous is much treasure” (Proverbs 15:6📖).

The Bible promises that as you live righteously for the Lord, you put yourself in line to receive His abundance.

To Receive, You Must Seek God First

The Word of God tells us clearly in Deuteronomy 8:18  that in order for us to prosper, we must put the Lord first in our lives: “But thou shalt remember the Lord thy God: for it is he that giveth thee power to get wealth.” We must put His interests ahead of ours. We must remember Him before we remember anything else.

Matthew 6:33  says it clearly: “But seek ye first the kingdom of God, and his righteousness; and all these things shall be added unto you.”

God wants to be first in our lives, first in our homes, first in our work, first in our finances. As we place God first, all His blessings will be added to our lives. We must put Him above all else.

And as we live a life of obedience and a life of righteousness, we have the promises found in Psalm 112:1-3 :

Praise ye the Lord. Blessed is the man that feareth the Lord, that delighteth greatly in his commandments. His seed shall be mighty upon earth: the generation of the upright shall be blessed. Wealth and riches shall be in his house: and his righteousness endureth for ever.

Everything rises and falls with obedience.

Five Proven Principles for Obedient Giving

It is impossible to live a life of righteousness without giving. Giving is the fruit of our righteousness. That's why the righteous give.

Psalm 112:9  declares: "He hath dispersed [he is a giver!], he hath given to the poor; his righteousness [uprightness and right standing with God] endureth for ever; his horn shall be exalted with honour." Our giving is living proof that we are walking right with God.

As you give, you activate powerful, eternal, proven, spiritual principles. Here are five specific guidelines as you give in obedience:

1. Don't look at the conditions around us when you give. Regardless of the circumstances, you must sow in faith. If you "withhold not thine hand," or refrain from giving, the seed you plant will prosper. As you give, you must keep your eyes and heart fixed on God's promises, not the temporary things encircling you.
2. You must not faint or be discouraged as you sow. The Bible encourages us with these words, "And let us not be weary in well doing: for in due season we shall reap, if we faint not" (Galatians 6:9 ).
3. Prosperity is God's gift to you as you give in obedience. It is no accident, for His Word tells us, "Every man also to whom God hath given riches and wealth, and hath given him power to eat thereof, and to take his portion, and to rejoice in his labour; this is the gift of God" (Ecclesiastes 5:19 ).
4. God wants to pour abundance upon you in order to build His kingdom. God gave the wealth of the Egyptians to the children of Israel so they could build His tabernacle in the wilderness (Exodus 12:13 ). Likewise, Jacob, on the way to Laban's house, made a vow that if God would be with him, provide for him and his family, and protect them, he would be faithful in his giving (Genesis 28:20-22 ). Prosperity comes as we decide to build God's house—His kingdom. Both the children of Israel and Jacob understood that truth. This is why God blessed them so abundantly.
5. Abundance comes when God finds you faithful. Jesus Christ Himself said that we must be trustworthy with what you already have before God will trust us with anything more: “If therefore ye have not been faithful in the unrighteous mammon [riches, money, possessions], who will commit to your trust the true riches?” (Luke 16:11 ).

6. God wants you to be blessed:
7. “The Lord shall open unto thee his good treasure, the heaven to give the rain unto thy land in his season, and to bless all the work of thine hand: and thou shalt lend unto many nations, and thou shalt not borrow” (Deuteronomy 28:12 ).
8. Yet He will only prosper you as you make a divine decision to build His kingdom—to proclaim the Gospel of Jesus Christ to the nations!
